Weekly Best Bets

Thursday
7:30 p.m. on NBC
The Office: You should've gone to Vegas, Mikey. What happens there ... well, you know. Michael (Steve Carell) returns from a vacation in Jamaica all mellowed out. Nothing at work is going to get to him. That changes when the staff gets its hands on an e-mail containing a racy picture taken during his trip. John and Karen (Jim Krasinski, Rashida Jones) get into an argument, and Pam (Jenna Fischer) is caught in the middle.

8 p.m. on FOX
The O.C.: Some guys are actually immune to feminine manipulation. Kaitlin (Willa Holland) learns that lesson when she's paired with a brainy band geek (Chris Brown) for a school project. She tries to get him to do her homework, but he's not biting. Summer and Seth (Rachel Bilson, Adam Brody) ignore their feelings to put their plans in motion. Julie tells Kirsten the truth about Frank.

Friday
8 p.m. on NBC
Las Vegas: Oh, no, they didn't! In the new episode "Wines and Misdemeanors," a rare bottle of wine is found in the Montecito's cellar, and Ed (James Caan) decides to auction it off — great exposure for the casino. There's just one problem: It's counterfeit.

Saturday
3:30 p.m. on NBC
NFL Football: The road to Miami and Super Bowl XLI begins this afternoon with the first of two back-to-back wild-card playoff games on NBC. A half-hour prior to kickoff, Bob Costas and the rest of the "Football Night in America" crew — Cris Collinsworth, Jerome Bettis and Sterling Sharpe — preview the key matchups and give their predictions. Two more wild-card games air Sunday, on CBS and Fox.

Sunday
7 p.m. on NBC
Grease: You're the One That I Want: Hang on, "American Idol" fans. Your addiction — er, show — will be back soon. Meanwhile, you can get a similar fix from this new series, which is also a talent search with viewer voting. The difference: Instead of a record contract, the winners get cast as Sandy and Danny in a Broadway revival of "Grease." Billy Bush ("Access Hollywood") hosts.

9 p.m. on CBS
Without a Trace: Did he crash and burn, or is there something bigger and badder than one man's meltdown going on? In the new episode "Tail Spin," an air traffic controller vanishes.
