haven't played for a while!" and "Cheer up, you'll remember you're supposed to count trump."

When I went home, I went into my office to check my awards of all kinds accumulated through the years - and I don't mean to brag, but there was an impressive silver and marble trophy with a hand of cards displayed on it. (Let's just ignore the date!)

Oh well, the girls will understand - maybe I should take a picture of that trophy next time I play and show them I used to win a lot.

I notice that we use the phrase "we used to" quite a lot among my crowd these days!

Here's a pithy saying:

"Nothing will be attempted if all possible objections must first be overcome."

See you next week.
